Application Deadline is Friday June 9, 2023

(NOTE: Your college/university may have an earlier internal deadline.)

Essay Requirement

Please write a brief essay describing your college experience, including the following information in your essay:

- Why did you choose your major?
- What steps are you taking to insure that you succeed in your major?
- What do you plan to do upon graduating and what are your academic/career goals?
- Please describe the primary volunteer/extracurricular activities in which you participate. How do these activities relate to your major, and what leadership roles have you have taken on?

Please read the following guidelines to use when writing your essay. These guidelines were created so that the reading of essays can be done as efficiently as possible and failure to follow these guidelines could mean that you would not be considered for the McLean Scholarship.

Limit essay to two (2) double-spaced pages.

You must have 1-inch margins (left, right, top & bottom).

Use a font that is easily readable and the font must be set no smaller than 11.

You may also include any additional information that you feel will be helpful in choosing you as a recipient of the McLean Scholarship for Nursing and Physician Assistant Majors (i.e. college transcript, letter of recommendations, etc.).

Completed applications should be returned to your Financial Aid Office.

The Financial Aid Officer will then select one application to submit to AICUP for the competition. If you have any questions about the application, please email Casey Trinkaus at trinkaus@aicup.org
